Maintaining operations in the event of disaster is a critical component of any business continuity plan.

Have you considered what happens if you can’t access your offices or lose power for days after a storm?

If your phones and internet are down, how will you continue operations and communicate with clients and vendors?

Many Gulf Coast companies endured the effects of a major disruptive event and experienced the consequences of downtime on productivity. Be prepared for disaster before it strikes.

Whether you’ve felt operational distress after a storm or require a contingency worksite to meet compliance regulations, FIBERTOWN offers scalable and reliable disaster recovery solutions to meet your needs.

• GEOGRAPHY
Located 100 miles northwest of Houston, FIBERTOWN is a safe distance from storms but close enough for easy access.

• DEDICATED DISASTER RECOVERY OFFICE SPACE
Our award winning office space features “best in class” technology and amenities to support your business continuity program. FIBERTOWN worksites are yours alone and not offered on a first come, first serve basis.

• CONCURRENT AND REDUNDANT DATA CENTERS
Worksites feature robust and redundant connectivity by multiple Tier I carriers and are powered by our fault-tolerant data centers.
